In a big house lived a little boy name Max and his mom and dad. Max loved his teeth so much he brushed them every day and when he saw a stain on them he would go brush them. One night he was brushing his teeth and after that he looked at his calendar and he notice that it was Halloween!

So he went to his room and got out his custom his custom was a pumpkin. He put it on and got his two bags. Max started looking for his mom but she wasn't no where and so he stoped looking for his mom instead he started looking for his dad. Max found his dad in his office working hard like always. Max said nicely "dad it's Halloween and I want to go get some candies." His dad looked at him and answered "ok". His dad just got his jacket and went outside with him.

✿ When Max and his dad were outside it was chilly and it looked like it was going to

They still went. Max was scared when he started seeing kids on their customs. Max just didn't look at them. He went door after door. He filled his two bags he had. So they went back home because it started to rain. When they were opening the door it smelled like pie. They did have pie for dessert and it was delicious and when he was done eating he excused himself and kissed his mom and dad good night.

He went upstairs to his room with his two bags that he had filled with candies. Every day he would eat five or more candies.

 One sunny day he got home from school and he looked in his bags for some candies, but there was no more, so he went to his restroom and brushed his teeth like always. That night he put on his pajama and went to sleep. Then suddenly his teeth starts to hurt so bad. So he got up and went to his mom and told her his teeth hurt. It hurt so bad that he started crying. His mom looked at her clock and it was 12:53 in the morning. So his mom just talked him to go back to sleep Max did went to sleep. That morning Max wake up and it was bright in his room and warm. When he was walking down stairs it smelled so good he went straight to the kitchen. His mom asked him does your teeth still hurt? He answered "yes" so when he was done eating his bacon and eggs his mom took him to the dentist.

The doctor checked his teeth and said that he had cavities and that his teeth would fall out. When Max heard that he was crying because he didn't want to lose his wonderful teeth. Max's mom took him back home. Max was hungry and he grabbed an apple and took two bites and the third one felt different so he went to his restroom and saw blood on his mouth he didn't have teeth so once he started crying and he saw the apple and he saw his teeth stuck on the apple. He went and told his mom and she said it was fine because the doctor told her this would happen and that he had to wait one year so that his teeth to grow back. Max would cry and cry. He waited and soon one year came.

It was October 30, 2008 Max was so happy because he grow his teeth's back.
He noticed it was can be Halloween again.

The next day came and it was Halloween and instead going out and getting candy he gave out candy to kids. Max said "I will never eat so many candies again," because he loved his teeth so much he didn't want to loose them again.

The End
